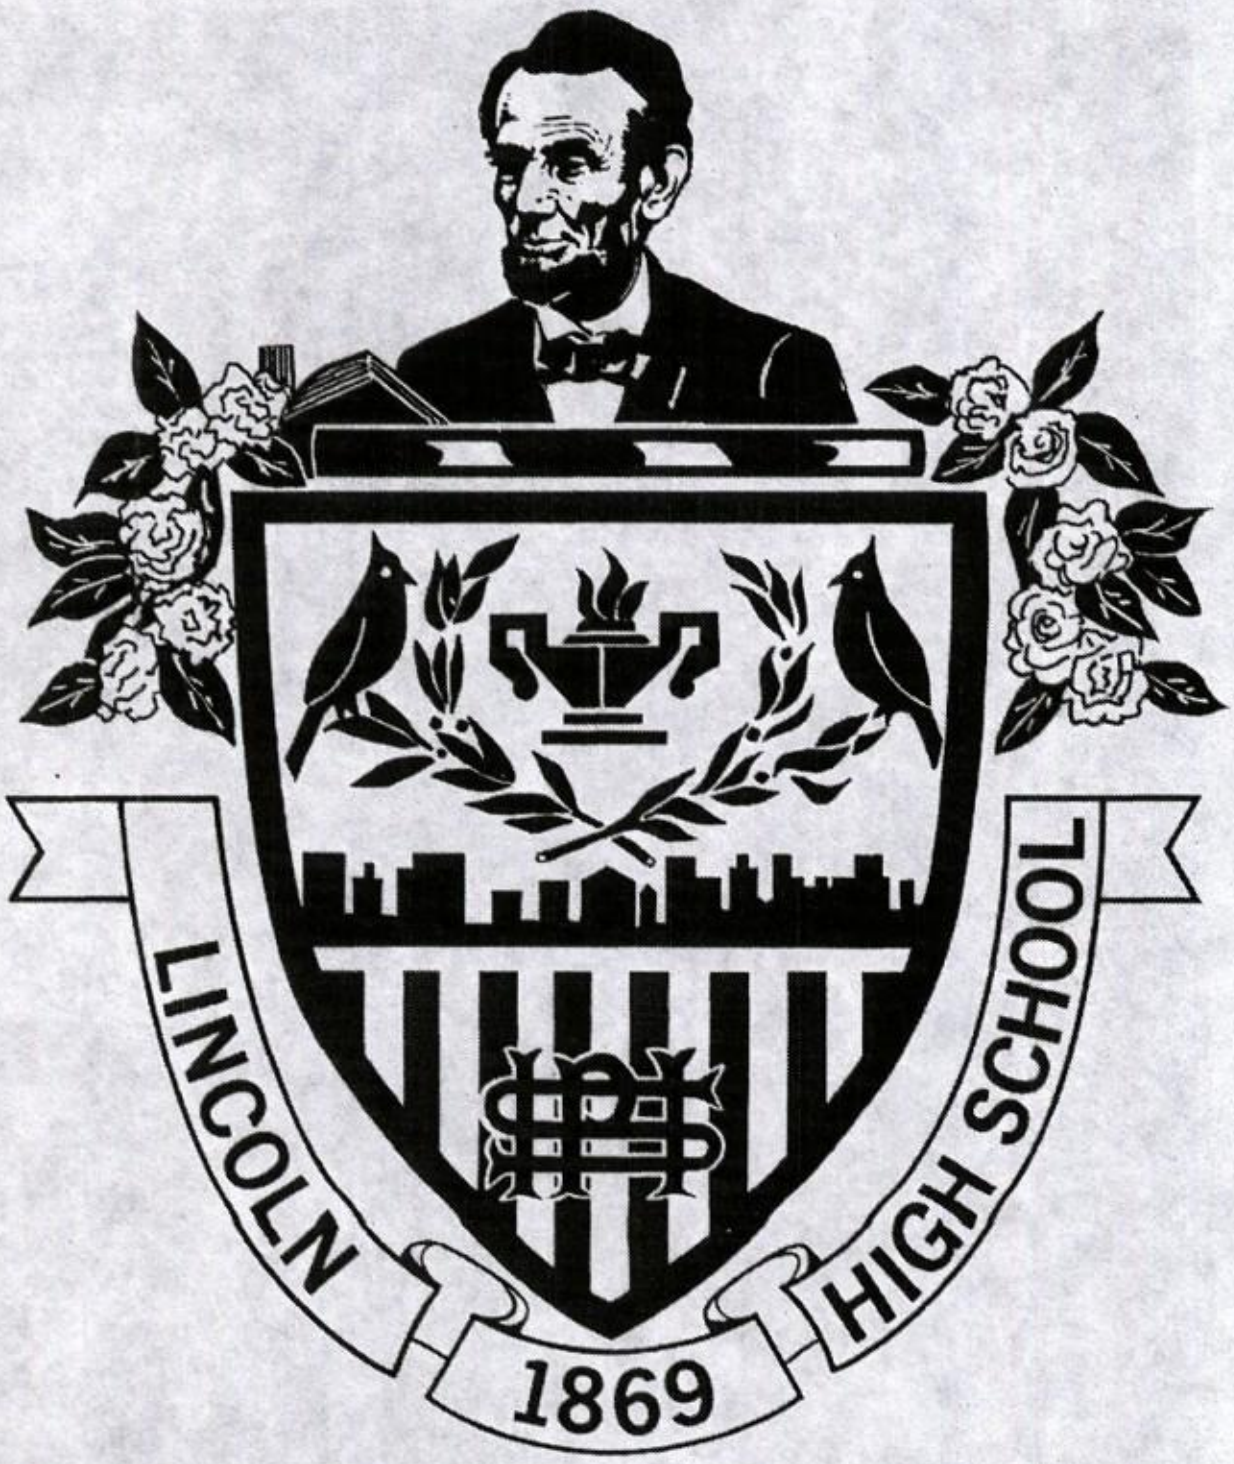
CARDINAL



The Lincoln High School Escutcheon

The symbols on this escutcheon represent the achievements, the history and the goals of Lincoln High School:

Frederick Littman's statue of Abraham Lincoln represents the dedicated spirit and ideals of the school and the man;

Camellias are the school flower which color the campus;

Cardinals and the laurel wreath represent the successes of the student body in its varied activities;

The lamp of learning symbolizes the central concern for scholarship and the high academic standards of the school;

The skyline dividing the shield indicates that Lincoln High School is the only secondary school in the heart of the city;

Alternating red and white stripes in the lower portion of the shield symbolize the Bellamy Flag Award presented to Lincoln in recognition of outstanding achievements of the student body, the faculty and the administration;

The monogram of the old Portland High School and the date 1869 signify that Lincoln High School is the direct descendant of the first public secondary school in the city of Portland.

Administration and Faculty

The statue of Abraham Lincoln represents the dedicated spirit and high ideals of both the school and the man. As President Lincoln led the people of this country, so the administration and faculty must guide the students of this school with the wisdom and high ideals which characterized Abraham Lincoln's presidency.

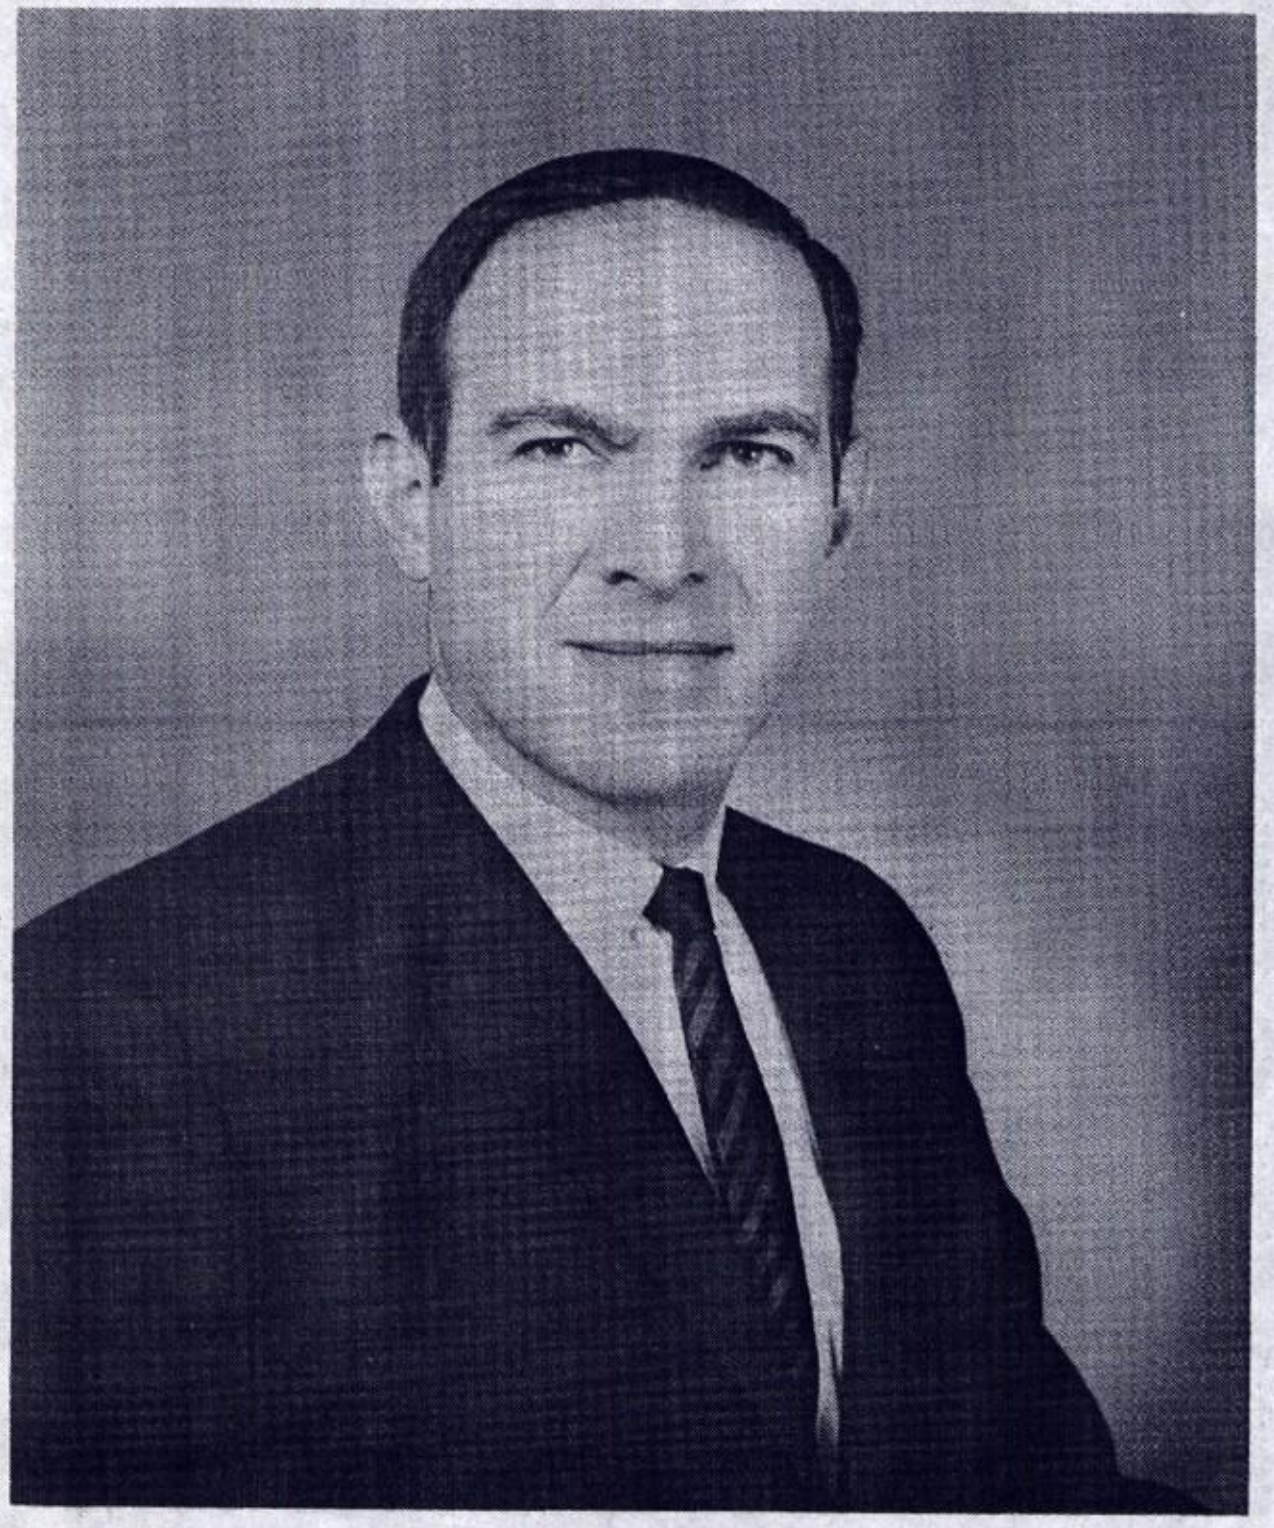
Administration

EDWIN SCHNIEDER: Principal

MILDRED W. BASSETT: Vice-Principal

ROBERT W. HENDERSON: Vice-Principal

ROBERT W. SIGNER: Vice-Principal



Mr. Henderson looks around from his desk to find the yearbook camera.

Mr. Signer sneaks out to take some time out for a motorcycle ride!

"Oh why do we have to stay in school on these spring days?" yawns Mr. Schneider.

Faculty

Business Education Department

The Business Education Department is offering a new half-year course in personal typing. In addition, the department has added a shorthand lab consisting of an earphone council and tapes of different speeds. The course of distributive education teaches students how to find a job; it also includes an introduction to economics. Special speakers often talk to the class on career opportunities.

The Art Department

One function of the art department is to provide a climate in which the individual student may realize his own potential. The atmosphere of the art department is one in which the student learns to think creatively and to apply that thinking to concrete art expressions. The role of this department is exploring the individual's potential for becoming an accomplished artist.

he painting is just perfect except. . . repeats Mr. rosier.

"I am too sitting up straight," argues Mark Bowers to Miss Johnson.

Faculty

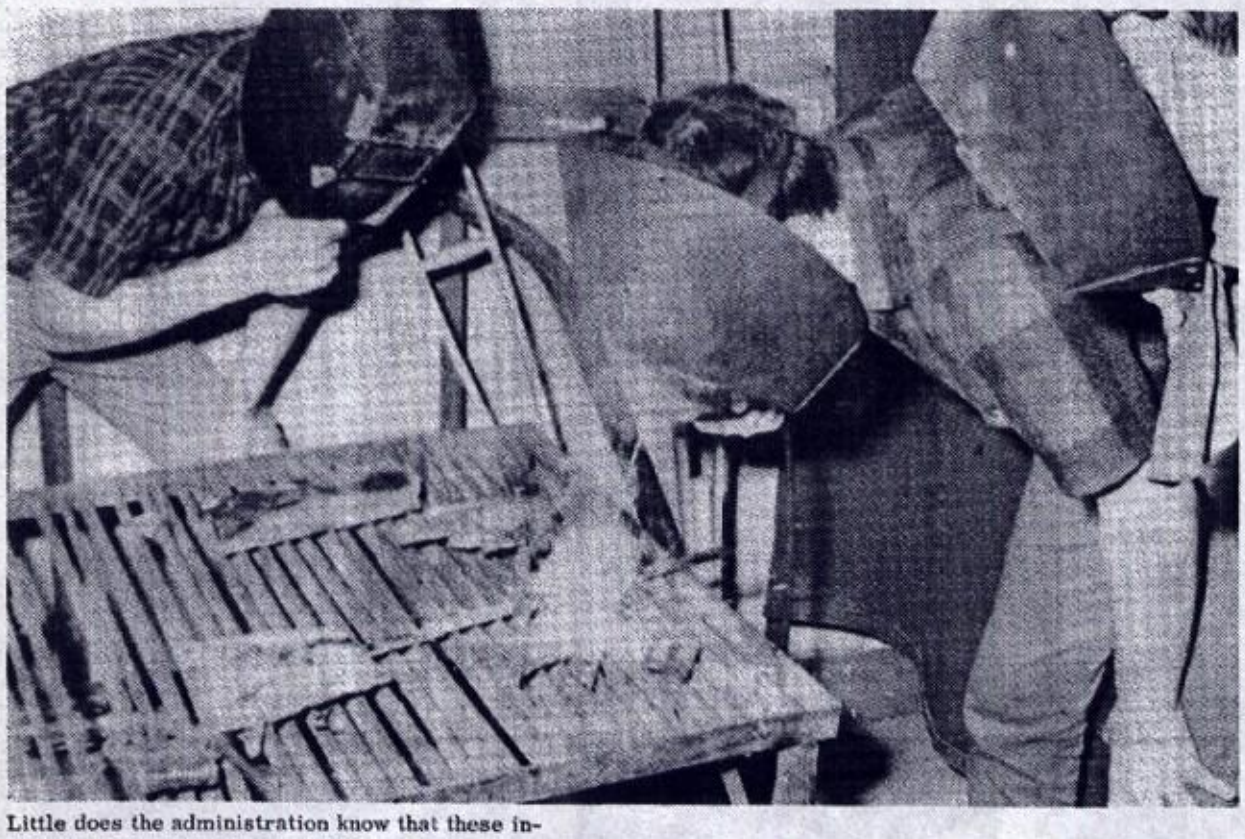
Industrial Arts Department

The industrial arts department encompasses a wide variety of arts and crafts classes, including wood carving, architectural drawing, and metal shop. Through these classes, teachers hope students will develop creativity, precision and, most of all, patience.

Home Economics Department

Cooking, sewing, home management, interior decoration, etiquette, marriage, and family living are but a sampling of the wide range of subjects covered by the home economics classes. In addition, a new class in clothing technique is being offered to college bound junior and senior girls.



Little does the administration know that these industrial arts students are planning to take over the world with their sinister device.

Larisa Brooks looks discouraged after just scorching her home economics project.

"It can be done!" exclaims Miss Wilson.

Mr. Kletzer, what do you keep in those glue bottles

Faculty

JOHN H. HALL: language arts, social studies

MISS MICHELE HILKE: language arts, advisor to yearbook

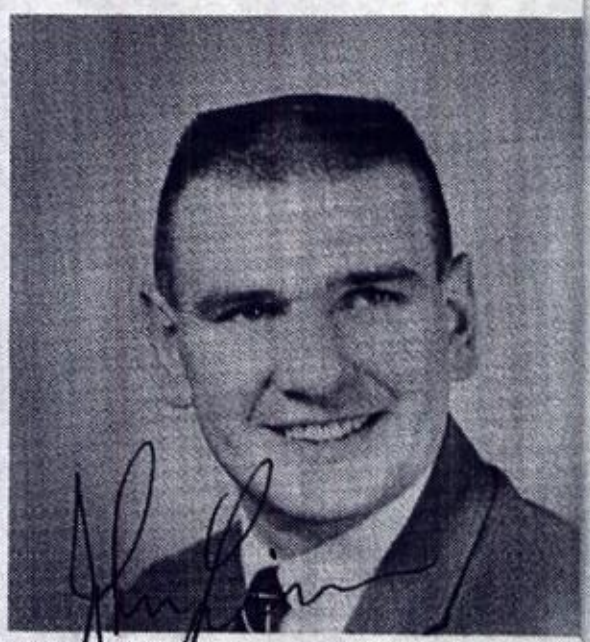
MISS BERTHA MAC DOUGALL: language art effective reading, advisor to Tasque

MONTEITH MACOUBRIE: counselor, langua arts



Faculty

Music Department

The music department has provided students with a touch of culture, a sense of creativity, and an appreciation of art in its finest form. Both Mr. Kelly, who teaches band and orchestra, and Mr. Trogan, who instructs the choir, are accomplishing much in their second year at Lincoln.

Mathematics Department

The mathematics department is exceptional in that it offers students a wide variety of courses, ranging in complexity from general math to trigonometry. Mathematics teaches precision, patience, perception, reasoning, and logic. Three new teachers were added to the mathematics department this year: Mr. Knight, Mr. Clock, and Mr. Still, who is now the chairman of this department.

r. Knight instructs his class in the latest techques of the jerk.

"Hey, I don't like this song. How about a Bob Dylan number?" suggests John Lazarus to Dave Shirk.

Jane Turner and instructor Mr. Trogen.

Mr. Kelly completes Beethowen's unfinished symphony.

Faculty

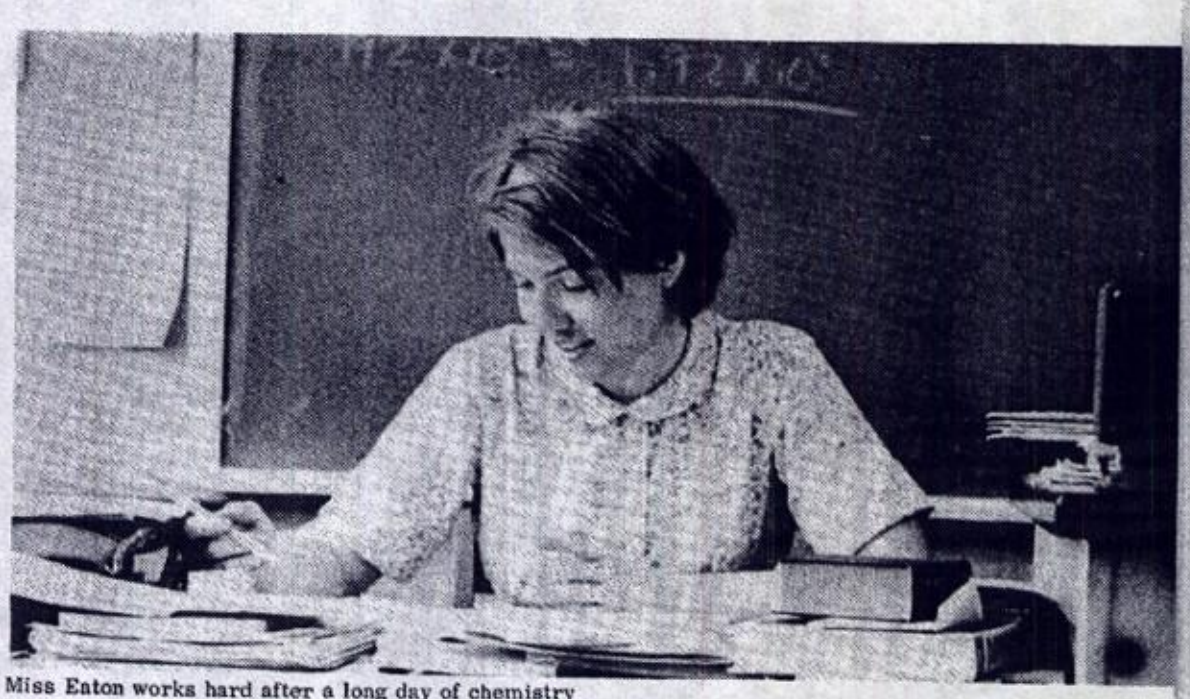
Science Department

The science department offers classes in biology chemistry, physics and physical science. The teachers of this department are using materials from the Biolohical Sciences Study Committee and from the Princeton Secondary Schools Science Project.

Physical Education Department

Activities ranging from basketball to dancing are offered to freshmen and sophomores by the physical education department. Additional classes are open to junior and senior students who may select physical education as an elective.

"Aw shucks, Miss Eaton, do you really think I deserve an A?" asks Leigh Schweiger.



Miss Eaton works hard after a long day of chemistry

Freshman girls are swept off their feet by the dashing freshman boys.

"I'm king of the mountain!" boasts Marvin Devoe.

Faculty

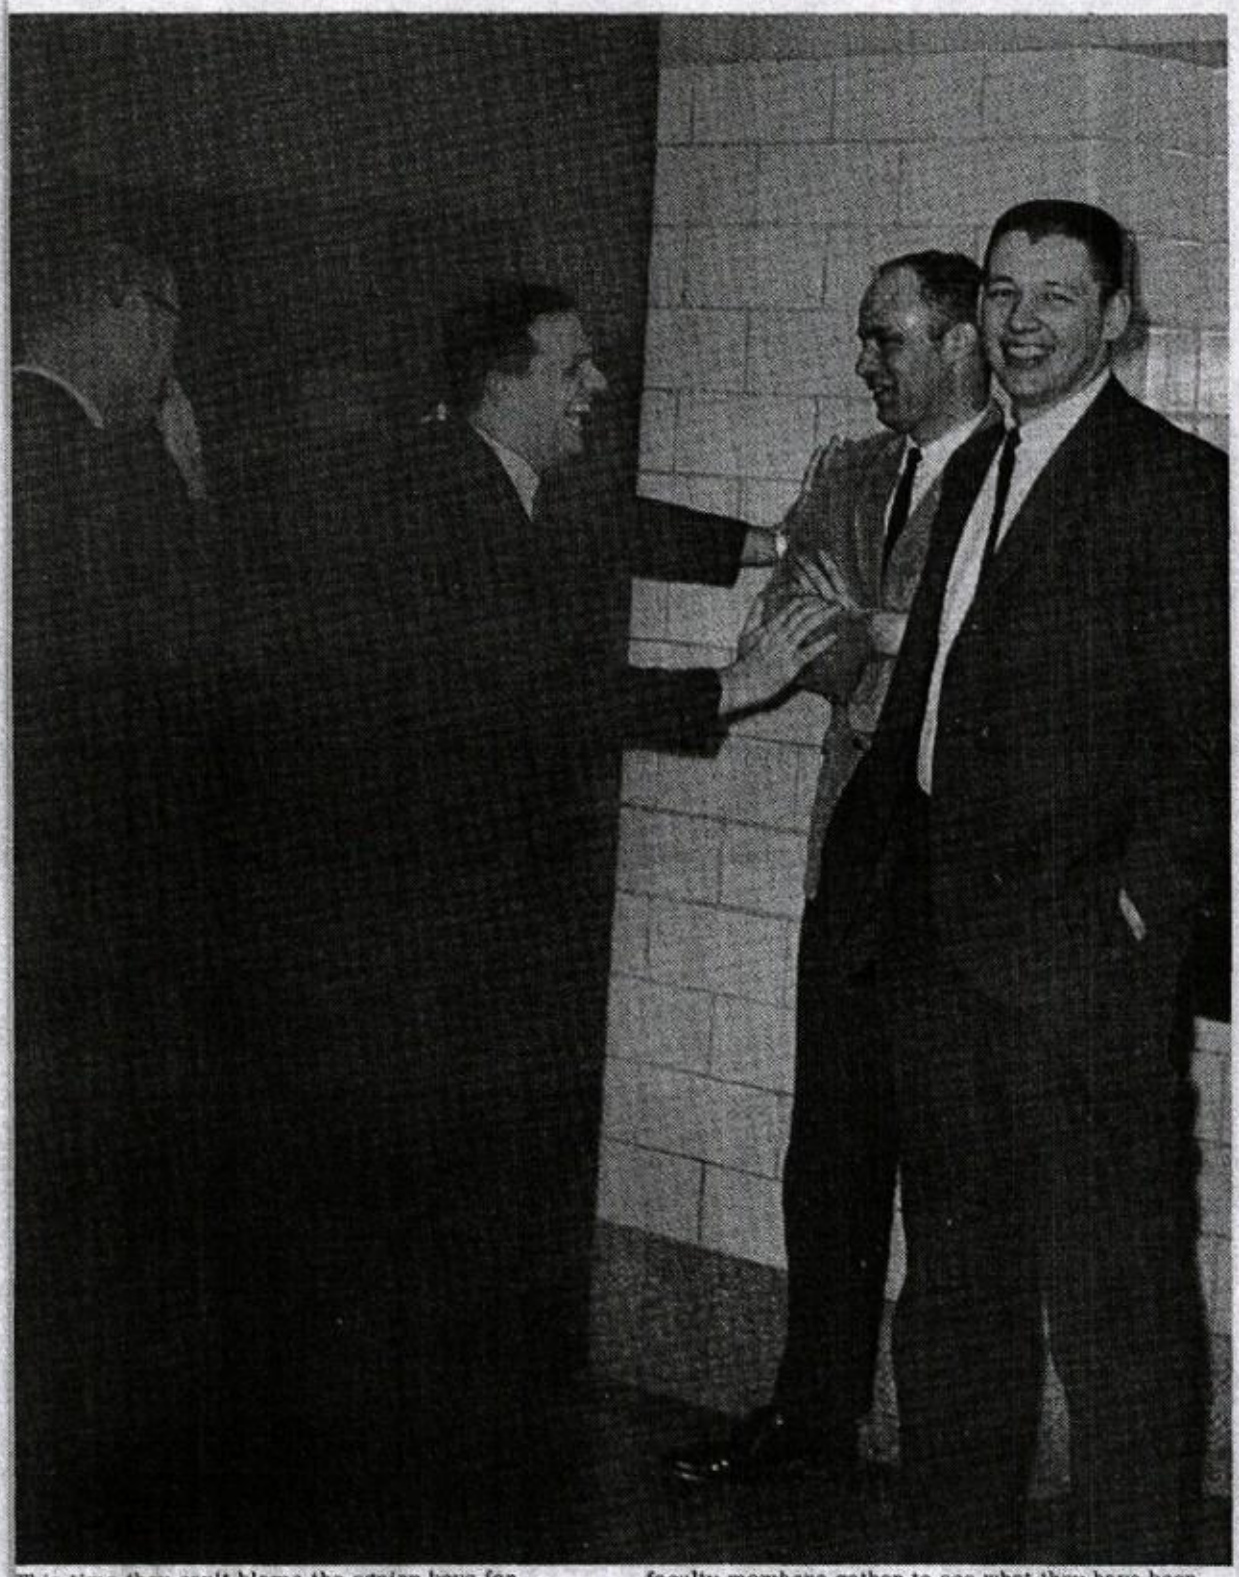
English Department

English consists of not one but four subjects: language, literature, speech, and composition. To carry out this important and extensive program, two new teachers joined the English department headed by Mrs. Labby, each assuming a special responsibility in addition to teaching English classes. Miss Hilke became the yearbook advisor, and Mrs. Breckenridge became the Ninth Grade English Representative.

Social Studies Department

American history, sociology American problems western civilization and freshman social studies comprise the social science department. Directed by Mr. Hall, the social science classes attempt to present to students a clear picture of the organization and problems of government.



This time they can't blame the senior boys for leaning against the drinking fountain, as our male faculty members gather to see what they have been missing.

Mrs. Bowie thoughtfully watches her talented art students.

Clerical Staff

The duties of Lincoln's clerical staff are diverse. Student store manager Mrs. Jackson sells supplies, manages finances, and records ticket sales. Mrs. Friedman, bookroom clerk, issues combination locks for lockers, and has charge of instructional materials and audio-visual equipment. Also on the clerical staff is assistant librarian, Mrs. Shirley.

MRS. LENORE B. FRIEDMAN: Book clerk

MRS. JEAN A. SHIRLEY: Library assistant

MRS. E. MARIAN JACKSON: bookkeeper

Mrs. Shirley works hard in the library.

Bookroom and Student Store Assistants

Though their ranks number but few, the bookroom assistants are a vital part of Lincoln's clerical staff. Whether sorting supplies or dusting book shelves, these efficient and reliable students pursue their daily tasks with unparalled enthusiasm and skill.

ow 1: Larry Briggs, Trink Johnson, Dave Delk, Wayne Delk, Bow 2: Marsha Poupore, Betsy Haney, Edna Vance, Donna Wheeler

Joe Churchill returns book to the bookroom.

Secretaries

MRS. MURIEL COREY: head secretary

MRS. LEONE B. NICHOLSON: assistant secretary

MRS. GRACE P. WOLFF: assistant secretary

MRS. ELSIE M. SCHNARE: assistant secretary

Mrs. Nicholson figures out schedules for counselor appointments.

Office and Counselor Assistants

Counselor and office helpers are an elite group whose purpose is to run errands, post absentee lists, and to assume numerous other clerical responsibilities relative to school management. In addition, their experience as helpers provides these students with an excellent background for future office work.

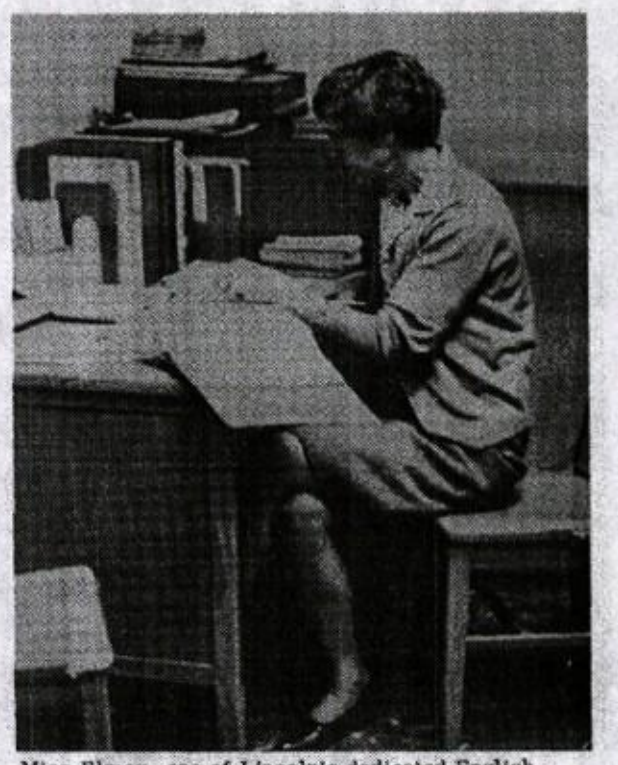
: Mary Butter, Carol Betteridge, Julie Hector, Sandra Stevens,



Miss Elmer, one of Lincoln's dedicated English teachers, spends many hours grading papers.

Cafeteria and Custodial Staffs

Cooks and custodians work to keep Lincoln running smoothly. Feeding 1400 students poses little problem for a systemized cafeteria staff. Planning the plate lunch and baking assorted breads and pastries are the major daily undertakings. Custodians keep Lincoln clean by dividing the building into nine sections. Efficiently and thoroughly, Lincoln's custodians keep the school sparkling.

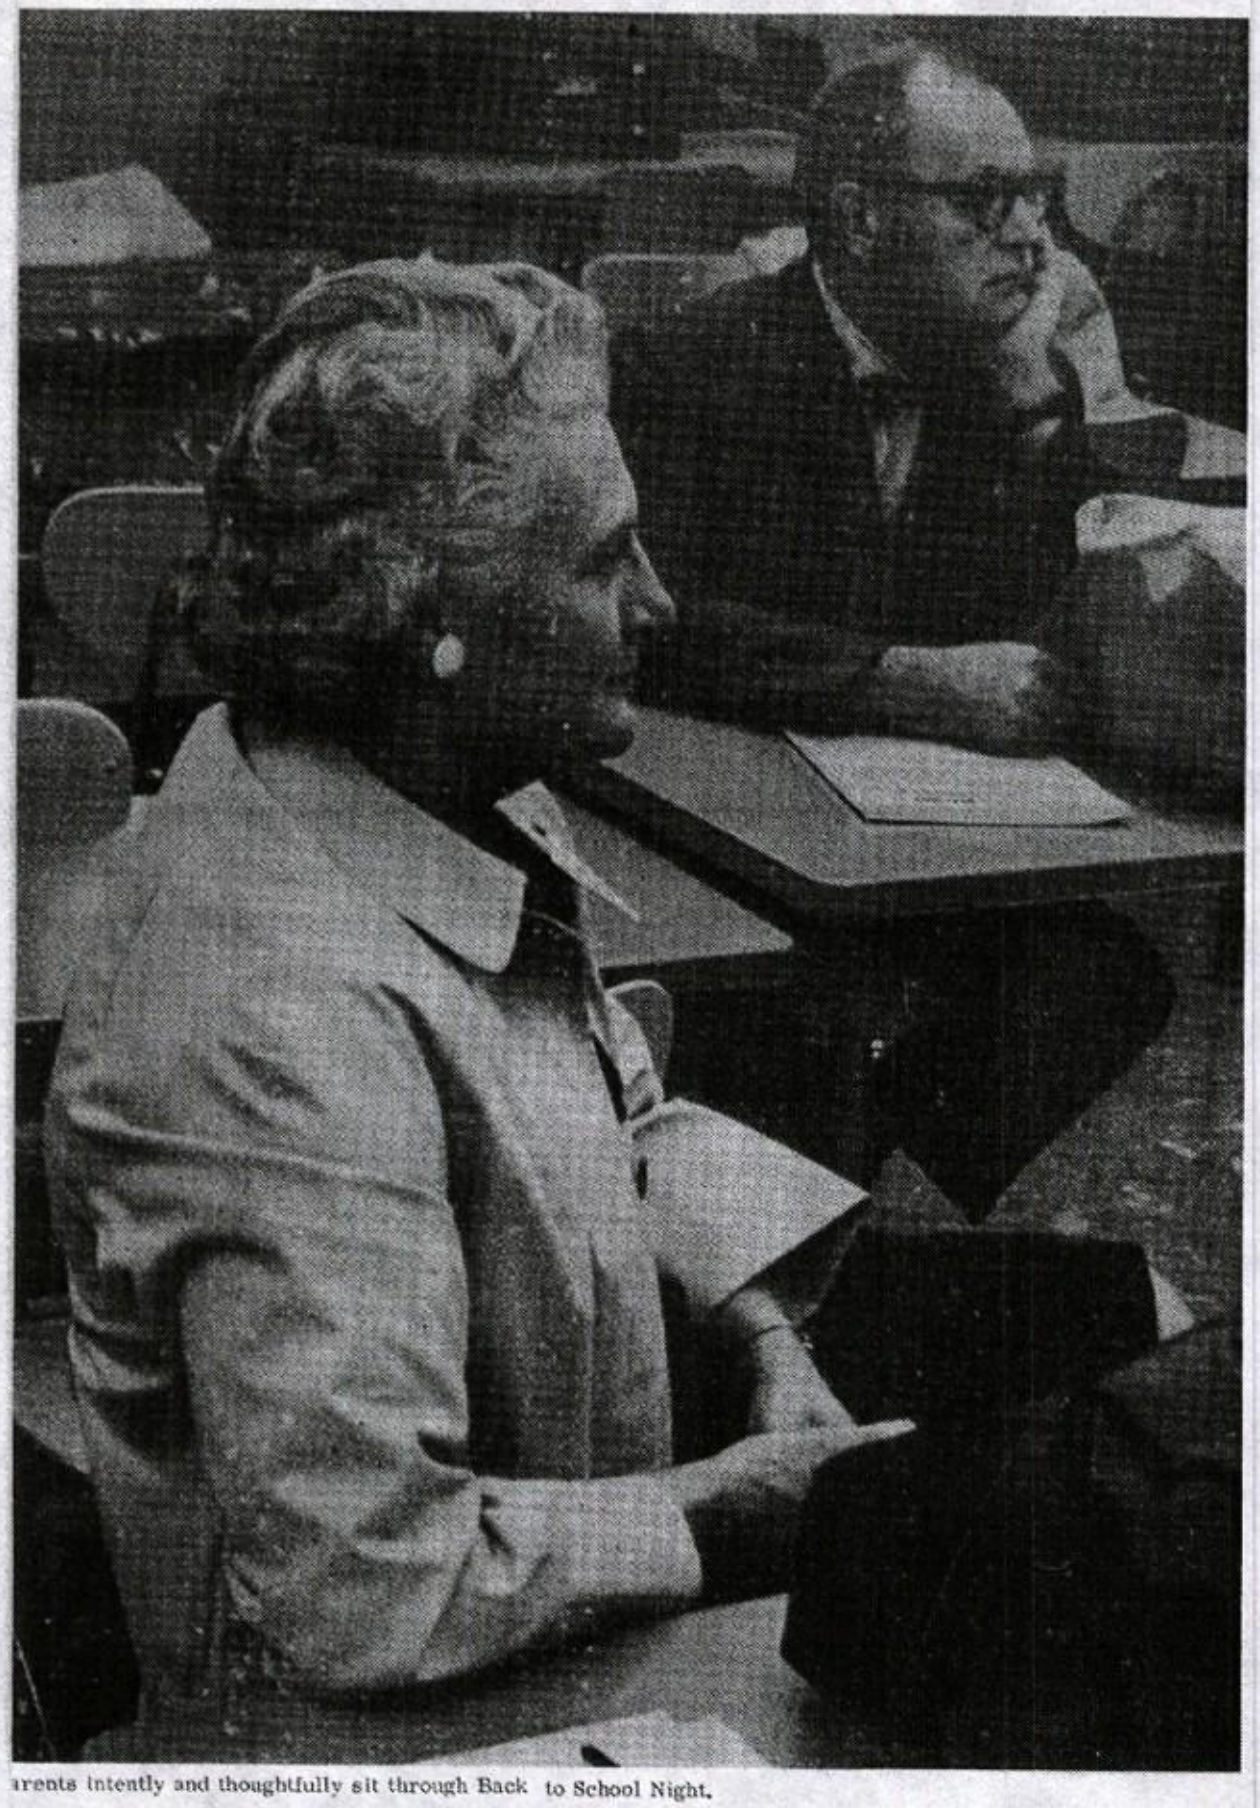
Parent-Teacher Association

Parent information meetings, Back to School Night, Lincoln's Rummage sale, and the PTA tea are some of the annual events sponsored and planned by the Parent-Teacher Association. Under the leadership of president, Mrs. Kathryn Neff, the organization contributed profits from money-raising projects to student and teacher scholarship funds. The PTA, in conjuction with the Dad's Club, also sponsored Lincoln's variety show, Popcycles, which was titled this year, "Trembling 20's."



Parents intently and thoughtfully sit through Back to School Night.

Senior Reminiscence

When the freshmen of '62 came to Lincoln, the high school role was strange and new. They brought to their first year a tremendous spirit which they showed by winning the Popcycle ticket sale and kick-off assembly. As sophomores their spirit continued to soar and again they won the Popcycle ticket sale and assembly. This same year they sold pompoms to promote school spirit. As juniors, the class presented its play, Annie get your Gun. "Memories Are Made of These" was the name the juniors gave their traditional Junior-Senior Prom. As the class reached their last year they sponsored a fund raising drive for U. G. N. The class of 1966 has now fulfilled its four years of secondary schooling. These students face an everchanging society, for which they have been prepared. As Lincoln graduates, they can be proud of their years at Lincoln.

The Sophomore Class has proved to be one of the most spirited groups ever to hit Lincoln. Under the enthusiastic leadership of Ron Hawthorne, the sophomores took an early lead in class competition by contributing the most money to the U. G. N. campaign and by registering the largest percentage of voters in the student body election.

HIGH SCHOOL
1869

Activities

amellias are the school flower which lor the campus. Each blossom is beautil unto itself and at the same time is an tegral part of the beauty of the bush as whole. As each camellia blossom is autiful by itself, each of the many acities which have taken place at Lincoln s been enjoyable by itself. Among the tivities of the past year were dances, ays, Popcycles, interest club gatherings,
d Girls' League and ALM functions.

Fall Student Body Cabinet

The Fall Student Body Cabinet endeavored to work for the establishment of unity within the school community. In addition to efforts aimed to increase student pride, spirit, interest, and initiative, the class competition program was introduced. Fresh goals of the cabinet included informing the students of cabinet objectives as well as attempts to review criticism and praise. An open-minded group, they benefited from the several questionnaires on extracurricular activities which they distributed to the student body.

Spring Student Body Cabinet

The limits of the cabinet are governed nly by their ability," said Mr. Olin Wills, ormer principal of Lincoln High School.
raditionally, student government at Lincoln as been concerned with the social and athtic aspects of our school. However, the pring Cabinet of 1966 has been extending ne limits of our student government into ne academic life. In this area the Cabinet as been concerned with an Assembly-seminar ystem, a student teaching program, a Jefferson-Lincoln student exchange; eventually, they hope to develop an honor system at Lincoln.

General Assembly

he General Assembly, composed of represen-tives from the reg rooms, was used as a link understanding between the students of Lincoln d their student government. Through this gislative body, the members and the cabinet orked together deciphering various school oblems. The Presidents, John Morgan and ott Frank, strived to develop a closer relatnship between the General Assembly, the binet, and the faculty.

Affiliated Lincoln Men Fall and Spring Cabinet

ALM had an activity-filled year under the capable leadership of Stuart Stout and Spencer Chen. Several projects, such as the candy cane sale, the live band dances presenting the Tikis and the Fabulons and the successful Sonics, were enjoyed by the Lincoln student body. New ideas were instigated. The boys adopted a Viet Nam orphan in addition to the semi-support of the Korean girl. Following the example of the Girls' League, the spring cabinet organized a traditional ALM week. An idea being worked on for the future is the possibility of ALM room reps. A constitution was written in the fall and radified in the spring to close a successful year.

Fall and Spring Girls' League Cabinet

he Girls' League is the only student or-nization which represents all Lincoln rls. Various functions are planned to clude girls who wish to participate. Benning the year with the traditional rls' League Week, the Fall Cabinet sponred the Apple-for-the-Teacher Day, Hello-ard Day, the Big and Little Sister Tea, d the climactic Twirp Dance with the adie Hawkins" theme. In addition, the mbined efforts of ALM and Girls' League produced a successful dance with music by the Sonics. They ended their term by sponsoring the Dad and Daughter Banquet with guest speaker, Richard Ross.
Activities of the Spring Girls' League Cabinet ranged from a Candy Heart Sale on Valentine Day to the annual Mother-Daughter Tea.
The finale of the year was the presentation assembly of the May Fete Queen and Court. The "Bali HAI" decorations added an exciting touch to the semi-formal May Fete Dance.

Symposium and Debate Clubs

The primary objective of Symposium was to promote student interest in cultural influences. Guest speaker Don Berry, a local writer, gave a challenging talk on creative thought. Lloyd Reynolds and Dr. Bierman stimulated interest in calligraphy and on 'Utopia.' A Symposium event which aroused much interest among Lincoln students was the discussion on the censorship of 'Catcher in the Rye' and 'The Brave New World' from our high school library.

Under the leadership of Mr. Westby, the Lincoln High School Speech Team won fourth place in the Portland Forsenics League, scoring higher than other schools in the city with much larger speech departments. Lincoln debators won second place in the city. Three members participated in the Oregon State Speech Tournament; one speaker won the Oregon American Legion's Oratory contest.

Folk Singing Club and Lincoln Skiers

e Folk Singing Club, founded by Emily almers and Jane Turner, has continued fulfill its purpose by giving its members opportunity to appreciate unusual musi- l forms. The increasing popularity of k music has encouraged a large member- ip. Students in this club enjoy singing rious types of folk songs and composing iginal folk music.

For Lincoln students, skiing is not only a sport, but an activity in which nearly a majority of the students enthusiastically participate. The ski bus, sponsored by the Dad's Club, has supplied skiers with three months of weekly transportation to the mountain slopes for a reasonable price. And there are those devoted skiers who have gone skiing beyond the Saturday trip to the mountain. Jim Thompson taught skiing at the Timberline Ski School. Most of the Lincoln skiers who race compete for Cascade Ski Club. Susan Povey and Alan Durkheimer had a successful year as Junior Experts, the highest rank in competition. The snow conditions were exceptionally good--lots of snow for lots of skiers.

Polyglot

Lincoln's literary magazine, Polglot, was edited by Janet Cavallero with advice from Mrs. Bierman. Enthusiastic students participated by submitting short stories, essays, poems, plays, and illistrations and also by volunteering their help in the production, sale, and publicity of the magazine. In its second year of publication, Polyglot is a great success and is fast becoming a Lincoln tradition.

French, German, and Russian Clubs

The goal of the French Club is to give members a broader and more colorful picture of France, other than the conjugation of verbs and the genders of nouns usually studied in class. Throughout the year, the Club has had movies, speeches, slides, and parties---for what better way is there to learn about a country than by eating its food?

The German Club, led by president Debbie Thomas and advisor Mr. Wood, had a very active year. Club members participated in a tri-language club Christmas tree project and caroling in the halls. They presented William Tell for I. C. C. Night. They presented a party in conjunction with the Russian Club for the French Club, winner of the Christmas tree project. One of their outstanding speakers was Cindy Hollingsworth, Lincoln's A. F. S. student.

This year, the Russian Club had many interesting and worthwhile projects. Russian students participated in a banquet at David Douglas, movies, and the Soviet Children's Art Exhibit. Among their very interesting speakers were Mr. and Mrs. Hammond who spoke on their tour in which they were the first Americans to visit the U. S. S. R.

nternational Relations League and Junior Red Cross

'he I. R. L. exists for the purpose of stinulating the interest of young people in nternational relations and world affairs, o inform students on world affairs, and o give students a platform from which ney can express their views on world isues. Frequently, distinguished guests orts or student panels.

The major event of the year was a state wide conference held in Eugene in late February. Ten students were chosen to represent Lincoln at this conference. In January, the Portland schools held a city conference. The subject for both conferences this year is "Africa: Crucible for Social and Political Change."

This year, J. R. C. had many worthwhile projects. They sponsored a dance to collect canned food for Thanksgiving baskets. They made Christmas stockings and put on a party for the children of the Oregon Volunteers of America. J. R. C. sponsored the Mardi Gras, from which more than 100 dollars profit was collected for a needy cause. The J. R. C. assembly was one of the outstanding assemblies of the year. J. R. C. undertook the job of buying and presenting much needed toys to the orphans in the Portland area.

Linc

The senior girls' service club, Linc, completed its many service projects with the guidance of its advisor, Miss Caldwell. Some of their activities include serving at banquets such as the P. T. A. Banquet, ushering for plays such as Tom Jones, distrubuting posters, donating food for needy families, caroling at homes for the aged, and park bench painting. The girls have found their projects to be rewarding and fulfilling.

Yearbook Staff

Under the leadership of the dynamic duo, patient advisor Miss Hilke and energetic editor Holly Bruno, the yearbook was completed. Quill and Scroll Quill and Scroll, a national journalism honorary organization, had a record breaking membership at Lincoln this year. Students working on Polygolt, Lincoln's literary magazine, were added to the usual membership consisting of newspaper and yearbook staff members. Members were chosen by the advisors, Mrs. Bierman, Mr. Sawatsky, and Miss Hilke, for outstanding work in the field of journalism.

National Honor Society

The most outstanding project of National Honor Society was the exchange program with Jefferson. Half of the members visted classes at Jefferson with students from the Democrat National Honor Society. The other half hosted a different group of Jeffersonians who visited Lincoln classes. All the members felt that the exchange program was a very worthwhile experience and that it should be continued in the years to come.

At the beginning of the forth quarter, Mr. Schneider issued the N. H. S. members independent study cards, allowing the students freedom for study anywhere in the immediate community. This year, National Honor Society was led by president Marty Treece and advisor Miss Elmer.

Thespians

Thespians is the honorary drama club. In the two years of existence, the membership has doubled. In order to become a member one must earn a certain number of points by taking part in school plays, Popcycles, skits, and culture appreciation assemblies. Choir and Ensemble

Lincoln's senior choir is one to be proud of for their musical ability. They began a well-rounded year with such fine performances as the Thanksgiving and Christmas concerts and the All-City Choir Festival. Lincoln also has a specialized vocal group, the Ensemble. Some of their performances were the Dad and Daughter Banquet, Popcycles and other various assemblies. Both groups are under the instruction of Mr. Trogen, head of the music department.

Senior Class Play

"Take Her She's Mine" was the serious yet humorous story of Molly Michalson's (Nina Glover) adjustment to college life. Ken Butler played the role of a protective father who was shocked at the attitude of the young coed. The senior class play was another hit in Mr. Lehman's theatrical season. The successful production was aided by Jan Gurevitch, student director.

Junior Class Play

Gidget Goes Hawaiian, presented by the junior class, was Lincoln's first musical. It is the story of Gidget (Peggy O'Phelan), a typical teenager, whose parents decide she is getting too serious with her surfing boyfriend, Moondoggie (Eric Dulong) so they take her to Hawaii. To her parents' dismay, she becomes seriously involved with a famous singer. The musical numbers were well done and the acting was great. Alice Tredup was student director.

Junior and Senior Class Play

TOM JONES, presented by Mr. Lehman's Drama department and Thespians, proved to be the comic success of the season. It is the story of a misunderstood foundling who is sent from his home to find his fortune in London; he encounters many complications there. Excellent performances were given by Charles Kneass, as Tom, and Jeri Thompson, as Tom's true love. Kathy Topp was the student director.

Lincoln Assemblies

Lincoln assemblies varied from the humorous to the necessary and all were enjoyable. Throughout this year, the students were entertained by such assemblies as play previews and the Popcycles' kick-off, pep and sports assemblies, and installation of officers. The choir performed in the Christmas and Spring concerts and the Junior Red Cross dazzled us with their humor. In between these, there were several guest speakers.

Dance Candids

Dancing, a favorite activity of Lincoln students, has developed a style of its own. In previous years various techniques have been discovered making it possible for every combination to be accepted. This year there were many opportunities for Lincolnites to exercise their talents. Live bands promoted enthusiam in attendance at after game dances. The Sonics dance was one of the highlights of the year.

Twirp Dance

Saturday, October 9, was the date of the Twirp Dance sponsored by Girls' League. The Sadie Hawkins decor of gunny sacks, corn cob stalks, and crepe paper streamers added to the festive occasion. The evening began as couples bounced down a slide to enter the dance. The Squires really wailed, helping to create an atmosphere of chaos and confusion. Peanut shells and straw wisps surrounded the feet of the happy dancers. As the big night ended, the confusion ceased, and the contented crowd carried their trophies home.

Mardi Gras Dance

"Now We Are Six" was the friendly and natural theme of the annual Mardi Gras dance sponsored by the Junior Red Cross. The decorations of lollipops, balloons, and Valentine hearts were simple, but appropriate. The band, the Quartettes from Vancouver, played a variety of music setting the happy mood.

May Fete Assembly

Queen Cinda Hill and her court were honored at the traditional May Fete assembly. The usual stuffed animals were given to the court and entertainment was presented in their honor by court jester, Pat Buck and his troupe. Queen Cinda was officially crowned and then knighted several deserving people who have worked faithfully for Lincoln during the year.

The theme this year of the annual May Fete dance was "Bali Hai." The appropriate south sea decorations, consisting of grass shacks, palm trees, and tropical flowers, made a very romantic atmosphere. The refreshments were also tied in with the theme. Hal Swaford and his band provided the music and Glen McClendon was master of ceremonies. Queen Cinda and her lovely court reigned over the occasion.

Rose Princess Assembly

Princess Pat, Lincoln's candidate for Rose Festival Queen, was presented to a wildly enthusiastic student body on April 19. She looked radiant and lovely, winning the hearts of all. Pat was presented with a scrapbook from Penny Devlin, Lincoln's 1965 Rose Festival Princess. She also received a gift from the senior class presented by senior class president Paul Von Bergen.

Popcycles

The "Trembling Twenties," noted as the gaudiest spree in history, was the theme of the nineteenth edition of Popcycles this year. This famous, two hour talent show contained dancing girls, flashing personalities, and shimmering costumes, all typical of the Twenties. The senior boys' dance came back this year and right in the spirit of things, a traditional soft shoe. The audiences received the show with great satisfaction.

Ann Lucke and Marty Schwab were two of the faithful twenties models.

Rix Patton and Cathy Spada had quite a beauty contest.

ldom have we had the pleasure to present such a successful guest act as the 'Seldom Six'.

Popcycles

There is no doubt that Cardettes stole the show this year with their three dances.

The Senior Boy's, after many long hours of rehearsing, stumbled their way through a riotous soft shoe.

Sports

The cardinals and the laurel wreath represent the successes of the student body in its varied activities. The teams representing Lincoln in the PIL this year proved conclusively that Cardinal atheletes do not rest on past laurels. This year Lincoln boasted fourth place football and cross country teams, a third place boys' swimming team, a second place basketball team, which earned a state tournament berth, and outstanding track and tennis teams.

Cardettes and Peppers

The Pep Club, larger this year than in previous years, has strived to form a more unified cheering section at games and to promote school spirit. Under the supervision of its advisor, Mrs. Cheshire, the Pep Club made new red and white checked uniforms for the basketball season. Their main event was a pot-luck dinner which greatly benefited the club and its members. Meeting with the rally to learn their new yells helped to strenghten their volume at the games.

The Cardettes, instructed by Diane Adamson, did their job to promote school spirit by providing half-time entertainment at many football and basketball games. They were also featured in Popcycles dancing to the Charleston, the Old Soft Shoe, and Beautiful Doll.

Varsity Football

Lincoln's underated varsity football team finished fourth in this year's close PIL race behind Franklin, Grant, Wilson, and Jefferson.

To comprise their 6-2-1 record, the Cards relied on a tough, steady defense that held foes to an average of only one touchdown per game when excluding their two losses. Coach Brown, with assistant Coach Mickey Gray, used an "I" formation offense with a split end and relied on a power running game with quick passes.

Although Lincoln was rated tenth in preseason polls, they had a chance to finish second by winning their last game. The Cards however could not stop a faster Grant team and succumbed 33-12.

Undoubtably the high point of the season came when Lincoln drubbed Jefferson for only the third time in Lincoln's history 19-6.

In every game the Cards were outmanned in numbers and size. Only thirty players were on the squad compared to most teams personell of fifty. In every game the light Cards were outweighed man-for-man.

John Tehan, Lincoln's MVP, was 2nd team All State and 1st team All City. Jeff Kolberg also was 1st team All City. Bill Reed, Tom Usher, Hank Barton and Doug Kolberg were 2nd team All City. Greg Houser, Marty Hobizal, Paul Von Bergen and Mark Moore also received mention.

Football Rally was fortunate this year, having only one bad-weather game. The girls did a good job promoting spirit with signs, slogans, decoration of lockers, and by leading yells at the games. The rally also had breakfasts for the team on the mornings of Saturday games. Their hard work was rewarded with the PIL Sportsmanship Award for Lincoln in the spring.

Cindy Sarver, elected by 1966 Lincoln student body to reign as football queen, was presented at the Card's opening victory over the Madison Senators. The crowning of Queen Cindy climaxed a weekend of festivities which began with a pep assembly Friday morning and ended with a victory dance Saturday night. Football Princesses were Debbie Autzen, Karen Lindhjem, Donna Schmitt, and Jan Zahler.

Junior Varsity and Freshman Football Teams

Due to the lack of personnell--only twenty-three boys--the J. V. team, under the guidance of Coach Fiorant, finished with a 2-5 margin. The young birds' victories came over Marshall, 6-2, and over Roosevelt in the final game of the season, 25-19. Losses included a close 7-6 defeat to Cleveland. The JV's sported various offenses, including a single-wing. Leading the JV's were Mark Hopkins, Ron Hawthorne, Terry Vandercook, Larry Wilder, Brain McNichols, and Eric Dulong.

In contrast to the JV's lack of depth, the Freshmen had an abundance of players. Fifty boys turned out for the squad, but they sported no standout. The team had fine spirit according to Coach Linn, but even so the yearling Cards finished with a 1-5 mark. The long victory came when the Cards second unit under Coach Grove beat a Cleveland second unit. Performing steadily were John Freed, John Wilhelmi, Steve Voorhees, John Bowman, Dave McNamee, Jerry Logarand, Steve McMurren.

Powder Puff Football

The junior and senior girls clashed in the annual Powder Puff football game held on Lincoln's mud covered field Friday, November 12. Coached by the varsity football squad, the girls practiced for four consecutive Sundays, going through the same drills as does the varsity, including all fours, high stepper, horse, wheel barrow and leg lifts. After a hard struggle, the seniors were able to beat the juniors by a score of 19-7.

Cross Country Candids

Lincoln's varsity harriers placed 6th in the city meet due to severe foor and leg injuries to Tom Gilchrist and Jim Averill. Since the team was not among the top four teams in the city, they did not go to state. However, Dean Vincent and Jim McGill went as individual runners having placed 5th and 6th in the city meet respectively. Mr. Lindstrom commented. "The difficulty was due to the lack of experienced, well-conditioned runners." Outstanding runners were Dean Vincent, Jim McGill, and John Morgan. Coach Lindstrom has hopes for returning lettermen Tom Gilchrist, Frank Eigner, Jerry Nelson and Jet Culley. He has great expectations for others who will develop from the Frosh and J. V. squads and can contribute to a good team next fall.

Varsity Basketball

As predicted, Lincoln hoopmen came through with a strong team this year. The Cardinals beat every team in the city, but it took them the last three games to do it. The first of these games was with Wilson who took the city title. The Cardinals finally defeated the Trojans in double overtime, 82-77. The third game was with Grant to determine the number two team of the PIL at the state tournament.

In the Grant game (the Cards' last PIL game of the season) the Cardinals were behind ten points in the middle of the third period, but came on strong to defeat the Generals, 65-54. The Lincoln team was led by 6' 6" Bill Palmer. He was named a member of first team for both all-city and all-state. Palmer led the city in rebounds and was the circuit's fifth highest scorer. Other seniors doing an outstanding job for the Cardinals were Doug Kolberg, Glen McClendon, and Hank Barton. Junior Jeff Kolberg contributed chiefly to the Lincoln defensive effort.

State Tournament

In the opening game against Oregon City, Lincoln's defense forced Oregon City to take the poor shot. During the first three quarters Barnes, Oregon City's big center and leading scorer, was held in check by Bill Palmer. Only in the last part of the game did Oregon City score to keep the game from being one sided. Lincoln started playing better offensive basketball against South Salem, the tallest team in the tourney. The Cardinals worked the ball well and literally shot the South Salem zone defense to pieces, forcing the Salem team to change to a man to man defense. After an early Lincoln lead, the pace settled down to an exchange of baskets by each team. This was Lincoln's best game of the tournament. Sunset's victory over Lincoln was accomplished by taking away Lincoln's usual rebounding advantage. While this was the Cards poorest shooting game percentage wise, Sunset played its best game of the tourney. Baker set the pace in the game for third place. Playing a deliberate style of ball and taking only the sure shot paid off for the quicker Baker team. The pressing Lincoln defense near the end of the game came within one point, but fell short of overcoming the Baker lead. Greg Slavens, Glen McClendon, and Jeff Kolberg were very effective in trying to pull this game out of the fire.

Junior Varsity Basketball and Rally

The Junior Varsity Basketball squad under the guidance of Jack Ryan gained valuable experience towards varsity ball next year. Although the J. V. cagers lost all of their games, they won their last one by beating Franklin. The J. V.'s boasted some outstanding players such as Greg Batiste, John Wiley, Charles Smith, and Chuck Swenson.

J. V. Rally, in their bright red and white checkerboard sweaters, tried hard to promote enthusiasm for the hard-working Junior Varsity basketball team. Although the attendance was small at most J. V. games, these peppy and loyal rally girls kept the spirit high. Besides their cheering duties, the girls also helped the varsity spring rally in making signs and gifts for the varsity team.

V.'s for the 1967 basketball season.

Varsity Wrestling

The Lincoln wrestling team boasted one city champion in the person of Paul Von Bergen who took the city title in the 178 lb. class. Two other outstanding seniors were Clark Matcheck and Pat Buck Juniors on the varsity squad this year were Chuck Rauw, John Montagna, Mike Pearson, and Ormand Rankin. John Montagna took fourth place at the city meet in the 157 lb. class. There were also three sophomores on the varsity squad who proved to be strong performers all through the season. They were Jim Montagna, Wayne Karney, and Bruce Galloway. Jim Montagna in the 168 lb. class and Wayne Karney, heavyweight, both took third place in the PIL. These juniors and sophomores should prove to be a strong nucleus for next year's team. Lincoln compiled a 7 win-9 loss record in the PIL. They also won the Lincoln invitational meet in which four teams participated.

Both of Lincoln's swim teams had a successful season, with the boys placing 2nd and the girls placing 3rd in the city meets. Led by Coach Knight the men took 3rd in the dual meets and sent 4 swimmers and one diver to the state meet, in which Lincoln took 6th place. Outstanding performers were Ted Leovich, Steve Warner, John Van Wyk, and Greg Usher. Ted Leovich took two firsts at State and broke the 200 yd. Individual Medley Record. Ted was also successful in swimming the 100 yd. back stroke competition. The girl's swim team won 7 out of 10 dual meets. The mermaids, coached by Mrs. Burtchael, placed 3rd in the city meet and sent two relay teams to State. Outstanding girl swimmers were Vera Letzkus, Mary Jane Eagon, Laurie Binford, Marni Bethell, Laurie French, and Marcia Stromme.

Golf Teams and Tennis Teams

The Girls' tennis team had a close season--almost evening up their wins and losses. Outstanding players include Deane Kommers, Sue Anderson, Sue Cooley, and Jane Anderson. The boys squad, coached by Mr. Baderman, was very successful in winning a large majority of their matches. Noted as outstanding players are Chet Orloff, Marty Treece, and Richard Senders.

The Boys' golf team had a very good season with eight golfers going to the city meet and four of them going to the state meet. Outstanding players were Eric Dulong, Jim White, and Ken Blake. The team is coached by Mr. Knight. The girls' golf team had a fairly good season in the city standings. "Jan Young is the top player," commented coach Cheshire.

Betsy Patton, Wendy Wells, Kathy Long, Ann Kendall, Jan Young, Tracy Andrews.

Advertising and Index

incoln High School has always been an tegral part of the downtown area. In ery one of it's many locations, Linoln has remained in the heart of Port-nd. The skyline of Lincoln's shield presents this association. In support the Lincoln yearbook, downtown busessmen and parents of Lincoln students ve placed advertising in this section.

You'll have fun creating your yearbook. Capturing the personality of your classmates and school in words, pictures and ink can be an exciting challenge. And we'll wager our favorite glue pot that you are determined to make your yearbook at least as nice or a little nicer than the last one published at your school.

Helping editors and staff members like you organize and create an annual that your school will be proud of is an important part of our business. It is the responsibility of the yearbook specialists on our staff to make your editing assignment as easy as possible and to free you of mechanical tasks so that you will have more time for 'imagineering.'

Complete art direction and layout services are at your disposal. Our typography consultants can help you choose type faces from the largest selection in the Northwest. New, modern printing and bindery facilities, operated by proud, creative craftsmen, are available to transform your thinking into the finest yearbook your school has ever known.

You are always welcome to browse for ideas in the many yearbooks we have produced for other schools and colleges at . . .

PREVIEW OF THE WORLD'S FIRST FAMILY OF SPORTS CARS FOR 1966

MGB-GT is a totally new grand touring version of the renowned MGB Roadster, with the same dash and performance. The GT is a year 'round all-weather sports car designed specifically for the American market, and with room for the entire family. First Portland arrivals soon. No prices set yet. Roadsters start at $2825.

LOTUS ELAN, built by Colin Chapman, builder of Indy Winner and Champion Racing Car of '65, is powered by 1½ Litre Twin Cam 4-Cylinder Engine, top speed 115 mph, 0 to 60 in 7.5 seconds. Prices start on Roadster at $4780.

AUSTIN HEALEY 3000 Sports Convertible is BMC's prestige leader. Features tough, vinyl-treated top that's easily raised or lowered from inside, wrap-around windshield, roll-up windows, hinged side vents, overdrive, and wire wheels. Price $3685.

MG SPORTS SEDAN offers more family room in less space, 35 plus mpg. Unique liquid suspension system gives smoother ride, and crosswise engine with front-wheel drive more efficiency. $1898.

MG MIDGET MARK II sports more power and more comfort, with roll-up windows, improved suspension system, curved windshield, outside locking door handles, and wire wheels. Complete price is $2125.

SPRITE MARK III by Austin Healey is the world's lowest priced true sports car! The features are a new design in soft top, a handsome new dashboard, and new suspension. The price $1965.

MINI-MOKE from BMC is the new fun way to do more work on ranches, at resorts and camps, or on hunting and fishing trips. Crosswise engine, front-wheel drive. A real performer! And the price is only $1330.

All prices above in Portland, P.O.E.
